

A large, dense cluster of various social media and web 2.0 icons arranged in a cloud-like shape. The icons include Twitter, Facebook, YouTube, LinkedIn, Google+, and many others, representing the interconnected nature of the web 2.0 era. The icons are in various colors and sizes, creating a vibrant and busy visual.

What does digital citizenship mean?

Where we learn digital citizenship?

- At school
- At home
- In Internet
- Non formal trainings
- Workshops

Digital Access

- National health insurance fund
- National social security institute
- Personal bank account
- E-mails
- Personal accounts
- E-schools book

BankOn Web

National health insurance fund

Digital commerce

- There are lots of different web shops
- We learn how to order and pay online
- We have banks cards for electronic payments
- We can pay our communal bills on-line

Digital communication

Instagram

- E-mail
- Facebook
- Twitter
- Instagram
- LinkedIn
- Youtube
- Snapchat
- Whatsapp
- Viber

Digital literacy

We study digital literacy at school during the lessons Information technology, Bulgarian language, Philosophy, technology and entrepreneurship and etc. We organize extracurricular activities under this topic.

Digital etiquette

Digital law

Digital rights and responsibilities

We study Digital etiquette, Digital law and Digital rights and responsibilities
at school during the lessons Information
technology, Philosophy, technology and
entrepreneurship and etc.

T = Is it True?

H = Is it Helpful?

■ = Is it Inspiring?

N = Is it Necessary?

K = Is it kind?

www.technologyrocksseriously.com

Digital health and wellness

We study Digital health and wellness during Information technology lessons.

We have extra PE classes for our better physical condition.

Digital security /self-protection/

We study Digital security during Information technology and Philosophy lessons.

Thanks for attention!

