HOW IT CAME ABOUT ?

More than 60 million people died in World War II, which lasted 6 years (1939 - 1945). Millions of people were injured and left homeless. Many epidemics have emerged due to the chemical bombs used. World War II, in which many war crimes were committed, was influential in signing the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. That's why ,the declaration prepared to protect the rights of civilians was accepted three years after the war ended.

"DENYING HUMAN RIGHTS IS CHALLENGING HUMANITY."

Nelson Mandela
